It can go without watering unless there are extremely hot and dry conditions, then it's best to water the bed once or twice per week.

Tommy Gallarda Stats

The bold, daisy-like flowers blend especially well with soft textures, like thread-leaf and , as well as airy ornamental grasses. Allowing the plant to set seeds takes energy away from further bloom production. Inspect the plants at least once a week and deadhead blanket flower plants by pinching back the flower stems to the topmost leaf so the entire flowering structure is removed.
