Belonging to the highest caste, even if someone is dirt-poor, is a distinction most white people cannot do without, and so they will vote to retain that distinction, even if it means that they and their families will have to do without healthcare, decent education, social security, clean air, and god only knows what else. It makes slaves to groupthink of everyone in the hierarchy.

Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents by Isabel Wilkerson

She uses these smart metaphors that only help the reader comprehend this term and its entirety.

Cast

If anything it has made it feel like a near certainty. Caste is the infrastructure of our divisions. Fortunately for America, DJT was not re-elected and yet somehow he still has his talons wrapped around the Trevor, What a powerful message you posted.

Caste Quotes by Isabel Wilkerson

There were several personal stories that will stay with me. In this system, a particular soul's new form depends upon the virtuousness of its previous behavior.
