City Council & Mayor

Mr Southey entertains as exaggerated a notion of the wisdom of governments as of their power. Steward, Road Commissioner, read his letter, dated March 9, 1970, the contents of which was a condition of approval of the tentative map concerning the bridge construction. However, it should be noted that the excesses leading to corrective action were not brought on by the monetary authorities had and someone reaction before the times led to results.
