5 Uncomfortable Issues The Church Needs to Talk About

It provides a helpful outline for a first conversation.

9 Things Your Church Can Do to Fight Racism

But I recognize a lot needs to be done. Some folks go to church to get prayer. South Africa enjoyed White Christian apartheid until its Christian faith was undermined by antichrist distortions of the Word.

Pastors, NAAF issue statements concerning race, cooperation in the SBC; an interview with Art Toalston

Hence, the foundations of Creation and the purpose for which we are here become all important. This is like giving a monkey a loaded gun.

Black pastor takes stand against Southern Baptist race statement

Only about 1 in 5 Baptist 17 percent or Pentecostal pastors 20 percent have been urged to address reconciliation.

Pastors' approach to race issues studied • Biblical Recorder

In the book of Genesis, God's Law of kind after kind was established, meaning species. Until we see this, we are lost. We can cast a ballot in his name on November 3 while shouting from the rooftops that our hope is in the Lord, not in a man or a party.

Some Black Southern Baptists feel shut out by white leaders

If racism is, indeed, a sin problem and not a skin problem, then someone needs to repent. The first is about slander, and this is his attempt to placate Critical Race Theorists.

Black pastor takes stand against Southern Baptist race statement

I understand my influence, not only in our church locally, but as a voice to many churches globally. I pastor many of the officers on the street. God made no exceptions for anyone.

5 Uncomfortable Issues The Church Needs to Talk About

For instance, pastors are more likely to observe frequent hardships for non-white Americans and two-thirds of pastors 65% agree that the effects of slavery continue to be felt today, a conviction held by half of practicing Christians 50%. Seventh, I agree with him that, whatever path we take, it must enhance, not detract, from our witness for Jesus. They need to get connected to leaders on the ground and pour all their resources into bail funds and providing food and water.
