Father Knapik's excellent work in Religious Adult and Youth Instruction especially is appreciated by the parishioners. Voters had to climb the long, dark, steep stairs in the rear to cast their ballots. The business tact and persuasive powers of these men and others attracted several institutions to the community: The Northern Car Shops, near the present water tank site; Hubbard Specialty Manufacturing Company, north of the Car Shops, along the tracks, which made wheelbarrows, furniture, awnings, and so on; and Luther Seminary.
