Illinois Constitutional Amendment Would Entrench Public

The extension of the prohibition to bills of credit must give pleasure to every citizen, in proportion to his love of justice and his knowledge of the true springs of public prosperity. Next to the effectual establishment of the Union, the best possible precaution against danger from standing armies is a limitation of the term for which revenue may be appropriated to their support.

Federalist Nos. 41

Whether the entire mass of them be dangerous to the portion of jurisdiction left in the several States?
