The Red Violin (1998)

The violin produces louder notes with greater bow speed or more weight on the string. Playing close to the bridge sul ponticello gives a more intense sound than usual, emphasizing the higher harmonics; and playing with the bow over the end of the fingerboard sul tasto makes for a delicate, ethereal sound, emphasizing the. These violins may need to be hooked up to an or.

Violin

Bow hair traditionally comes from the tail of a male horse which has predominantly white hair. Its top curve holds the strings at the proper height from the fingerboard in an arc, allowing each to be sounded separately by the bow.
