Dartford Grammar School

Students are encouraged to think, act and communicate mathematically, providing them with the skills to analyse situations in mathematics and elsewhere.

Secondary schools

We aim to equip our students for a full and constructive place in society, to help them to be adaptive, to exercise critical judgement and to be prepared for the rapidly changing requirements of the twenty-first century. In due course I moved on to become a head of sixth form, deputy head and I served my time establishing who threw the Coke can from the bus and then a headteacher.
