Eisenhower Doctrine

The doctrine was intended to check increased Soviet influence in the , which had resulted from the supply of arms to Egypt by communist countries as well as from strong communist support of Arab states against the Israeli, French, and British attack on Egypt in October 1956 that was at the centre of the so-called.

Introduction

However, to a Middle Eastern pan-Arab nationalist like Nasser, aggression and expansion had always come from the West, particularly from Great Britain and Israel.
