Espace Maurice Blanchot

On the surface, Blanchot's report deals with the relationships of the narrator with four women, and the role of death in their lives.

Blanchot, Maurice

I didn't wonder that after at What makes it happen that every time my grave opens, now, I rouse a thought there that is strong enough to bring me back to life? Vain espoir que celui d'écrire avec le vu d'être entendu, d'établir une quelconque fraternité humaine avec l'autre ; cruelle désillusion que celle de celui qui écrit dans l'attente d'un retour, d'un écho. The new monthly publication was launched on January 10, 1936, and appeared regularly until the war, in the form of ten issues of either sixteen or thirty-two pages per year. Instead, he unleashes his demons and falls into the same spells of thought he was trapped in before. I often had to reread paragraphs to remember how a character or situation was introduced because he glides through events so gracefully that they hardly make an impact. It is translated by Charlotte Mandell and appears by kind permission of the author.
