Zorba the Greek Summary

Served with pita bread Anchovies and onions - on request. The desperately poor villagers crowd around her hotel, impatiently waiting for her demise so they can steal her belongings. Her room was cluttered so much that there was only a pathway to her bed and her bed was cluttered as well, leaving only a large indentation where she slept.

Zorba The Greek

He stands at the gate to her garden for a while, looking and imagining going in to be with her. Only Basil, Zorba and Mimitos show any emotion over her murder. Founded in 2018, BookQuoters has quickly become a large and vibrant community of people who share an affinity for books.

Zorba the Greek (1964)

Countless times I wanted to mark a nugget of wisdom for later reference, but instead opted to continue wending my way through. The narrator continues his Buddhist writings in an effort to exorcise the beautiful widow from his mind, while Zorba continues to encourage him to go to her, even on Christmas Eve.

A man just has to go and grope a woman and she will instantly pleasure him. If the string slips out of its grasp, the head, poor devil, is lost, finished! The father of the guy kills the widow. I read Zorba the Greek, originally titled Alexis Zorba, by Nikos Kazantzakis as part of my 2017 classic bingo challenge.
