Keel

Looking at his will and children; Sarah and Esias are deceased before their father and therefore would not be mentioned in the will.

Keel

The Keel-Whitaker book states that William and Robert Whitaker were sons of Joshua Whitaker and Jane Parker; grandsons of Robert Whitaker and Margaret Lisle. He had 19 or 21 children by two or three wives, Priscilla, Winneford and Susan Graham, 7 children by the first, 2 by the second, 11 by the third, and a son named John by each, including one John Hancock and Jack or Jackson.

Keel

In 1830: He was in the 1830 census in Jackson County, Alabama, with a household of seven, next to John Stapler and Rebecca Craig, and near Lucretia Whitaker probably a widowed daughter-in-law, James Troup, John Higdon, Christopher Grayson, and other familiar names near the Madison County-Marshall County line. According to Harold Glenn Whitaker, co-author of the Keel-Whitaker Family, the unpublished revision of the book showed that John Whitaker Jr.

John Whitaker Jr. (1755)

According to descendants, these were two separate men, first cousins, and buried in two different graves.

Re: Keel

Not to be confused with his first cousin John Whitaker 1760-1837 of Mulberry, Lincoln County, Tennessee, NSDAR A124316. The first edition of this book had published the statement that John Whitaker Sr. I believe Winnie died there and John then married Susan Graham.
