Arthur, King

On the surface, the leaders of the city are pious; the king attends mass regularly, and makes the sign of the cross when he hears bad news.

King Arthur and His Knights in Mythology by Evelyn Wolfson

Many Welsh however, angered that the Normans had usurped their legends as well as their lands, still whispered of the return of their Arthur who would regain their former glory and independence. In the beginning of the legends there was Merlin, the magician and guardian of young Arthur. His History of the Kings of Britain contains the most detailed account of King Arthur written up to that time.

King Arthur & the Knights of the Round Table

He asks his last remaining faithful knight, Bedivere, to return Excalibur to the Lady of the Lake. But in the Suite du Merlin Post-Vulgate, c. Lancelot barely survived the duel when the sun had reached its peak.

Arthurian Legend

Round Table

Lionel buried Calogrenant and the hermit, while Bors continued on his quest, meeting Perceval and Galahad.

In Search of Myths & Heroes . King Arthur

Of many similar water spirit legends with many names, Nimue is the best choice for this particular Lady of the Lake - the very one who also enchanted Merlin and imprisoned him forever.

King Arthur and His Knights in Mythology by Evelyn Wolfson

This title was bestowed upon another character of Arthurian myth Mordred possibly based on the historical? Lancelot also became involved in a war between King Arthur and Galehot. Later weavers of the myth were probably uncomfortable with this conflicting character so they split him in two; both betray Arthur one unintentionally the other deliberately.
