Creed and deed: a series of discourses : Adler, Felix, 1851

One must eat kosher food, pray thrice daily, observe the Sabbath, separate wool from linen, etc. One of the biggest problems that I have is that I have no one to talk to. I shall, so far as I am able, bring to my seniors solutions, not problems.

FFA Creed

And as ye go preach saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand, Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give.

We seek unanimity in halakhah, not in aggadah.

Creed and Deed by Felix Adler

Religion institutionalizes the natural desire of human beings to find meaning in their lives. How is it defined in Judaism? The All-enfolding, The All-upholding, Folds and upholds he not Thee, me, Himself? When even the great Maimonides attempted to formulate Judaism's basic beliefs into a creed of 13 essential things that every Jew must believe, he quickly discovered that that not everyone agreed with him. Judaism is based on deed, a commitment to action — what do I do? While a basic level of faith is required, being religious refers largely to one's deeds — i.

Deeds Before Creeds? I Think Not!

We do that in life.
