193 Wartime Recipes

All are useful easy recipes as well as the posher ones for more special occasions. The texture is rounded and soft but still focused and bright, and though you might be able to get more bang elsewhere for your forty bucks, you'll have a hell of a time getting more class.

COVID

With that context set, the 2011 has softened more rapidly than I expected when I last tasted it two and a half years ago, and is now certainly among the softest and most approachable of all releases of Paixar. Marguerite Patten has spent more than 50 years observing the British at table and teaching us how to cook.

Daily Life in Florence

A great collection of salmon recipes. The color of the wine is deep and inviting.

Daily Life in Florence

Both were rationed during WW2 and the health benefits were clear.

193 Wartime Recipes

Essentially dry but hardly austere, this is a great summer sipper but also a promising partner for almost any lightly spicy dish appropriate for white wine. This one, like all rosé, should be consumed when young so search for the most recent vintage. A wicked good sipper, but also a great choice for fish dishes or lighter preparations of white meats.
