Roots in Kashmir: 2017

It seems to me that whereas the protagonists of Camp B insist on what they claim are concrete and immediate issues, ignoring ideas, history and abstractions, those of Camp A put more emphasis on the latter.

Indeed, the less than wholehearted support of several radical Islamic states for the Pakistani claim on Kashmir probably results from a concern for the growth of Indian Islam, which might be stunted seriously if a successful secession of Kashmir exposes them. Likewise, as shapers of ideas and opinions, they failed to tackle the problem that Narahar Kurundkar, for example, has referred to in an article in Quest. One hopes that communal and corrupt UPA is soundly defeated in the upcoming elections.

Decolonisation process was on and Anglo-American bloc was trying to destabilise India in Kashmir.

Bharat's Kashmir War on JSTOR

The EIC, which dated back to the days of Queen Elizabeth, was given a monopoly to conduct business in India by the British Parliament, acting on behalf of the financial and commercial interests of London. He must do it, not merely to further his self-interest, not merely to protect himself from the cultural chauvinism and exploitative schemes of the people from other regions, but also to kill that feeling of guilt which he cannot help but feel every time he hears of anti-Muslim riots in India. The war was a time of tempestuous mass struggle.

Economic interests and the cultural and social mores such as festivals, social practices and lifestyle were factors that further divided the two communities.

The Punjab Crisis

But all visions are ephemeral and ideal. Religious violence has something to do with the urban-industrial vision of life and with the political processes the vision of lets loose. The aggressive anti-Muslim posture of the fringe organisations activated during the agitation, the sporadic attacks on some Muslims and the outburst of communal violence in two towns of the region did not go very well with the local sensibilities.
