Our Country's Good

Newport, as instructed by the Virginia Company, left Jamestown on June 22. We had another purpose: watch the movie.

The Recruiting Officer & Our Country's Good

At the same time, the charter contained no requirement either that the colonists build a coastal naval station from which to harry the Spanish main. Courtesy of the Library of Virginia. It was the source of water, provider of food, deliverer of fertile soil, the trunk line of transport and travel and trade, a hallowed and living being, honored, and perhaps even worshipped, by people for whom life without it would have been unimaginable.

They were also warships, he reminded Smith, that could carry hundreds of men, who upon his command could destroy any people who got in his way. My cousin and life-long mentor, the Richmond journalist David Burton, whose gift for storytelling and passion for Virginia history have enriched my world since I was a child, generously shared his deep knowledge, allowed me to peruse his personal library, and read over the manuscript word for word, suggesting numerous edits that added immensely to the readability of the book.
