

German New River settlement, Virginia

- - Germanna

Description: -

-

Virginia -- Genealogy.

New River (Va.) -- History.

Registers of births, etc. -- Virginia.

Germans -- Virginia. German New River settlement, Virginia

- German New River settlement, Virginia

Notes: Title vignette.

This edition was published in 1929

Filesize: 21.104 MB

Tags: #Germanna

Germans in Virginia

Claudius Bustard and Dorcas to James Hays and , on Blue Ridge Mountains in Augusta and Amherst, known as Rockfish Gap, patented to William Rodgers and John Burger. The , , and are listed on the.

Early Settlers of Augusta County, Virginia

Delivered: James Lockhart, June, 1757. This was John Anderson, b. William Lewis and Ann to , £15.

Early Settlers on the James River, Augusta County, VA

The author writes as if you have already learned where every early town, county, and river of early Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina Colonies are.

Early Settlers on the James River, Augusta County, VA

By 1790, about 28 percent of the white population were Germans living between in and in. Borden to sold in lifetime of Benjamin, Sr. Teste: James Davies, John McMurtrey.

Related Books

- Twilight of the chiefs - the Mac Carthy Mór hoax
- West Riding of Yorkshire, Kippax near Leeds - particulars & conditions of valuable freehold and tit
- Limited land in the world food problem
- Administrations anti-inflation program - hearings before the Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization
- Capital changes reporter.