The unavailability of a perfect octave for a particular pitch-class is a serious disadvantage under any circumstances. Some historians once attributed it to 879-942. The symbols indicating the notes are rotated and mirrored depending on the tetrachords.

â“ Musica enchiriadis is an anonymous musical treatise of the 9

This interpretation also agrees in essence with Holladay's. On the question of authorship, it is notable that our strong impulse to establish firm attribution is, as yet, matched only by an ongoing failure to do so. One view, which I do not hold while accepting the validity of some of the arguments put forward in its support is that this system was devised specifically to meet the needs of contemporary chant, requiring modification only when it was used for polyphony.

Origins of the Musical Staff

This music theory treatise, along with its companion text, Scolica enchiridis, was widely circulated in medieval manuscripts, often in association with Boethius De institutione musica.

MUSENCI_TEXT

Quique rursus, id est in utramque partem octavi, sicut ad medium diapason, ita, ut dictum est, ad se invicem quinto decimo loco resonant disdiapason. Sed cola fiunt coeuntibus apte commatibus duobus pluribusve, quamvis interdum est, ubi indiscrete comma sive colon dici potest. Cuius Euridicem, id est profundam diiudicationem, si quis vir bonus, quod Aristeus interpretatur, amando sequitur, ne penitus teneri possit, quasi per serpentem divina intercipitur prudentia.

Musica Enchiridis Scolica

It is certain that ME and SE were influenced at least in some respects by Byzantine musical concepts.
