The Importance of Art in a Child's Development

Neither capital punishment nor life imprisonment without possibility of release shall be imposed for offences committed by persons below eighteen years of age; b No child shall be deprived of his or her liberty unlawfully or arbitrarily. The members of the Committee shall be elected by secret ballot from a list of persons nominated by States Parties. Learn more by reading the content provided in the content below.

OHCHR

States Parties shall take legislative, administrative, social and educational measures to ensure the implementation of the present article. Children not only draw from life, but also copy images in their surroundings. Classwork and homework assignments do not allow students to show their full potential.

OHCHR

The exercise of this right may be subject to certain restrictions, but these shall only be such as are provided by law and are necessary: a For respect of the rights or reputations of others; or b For the protection of national security or of public order ordre public , or of public health or morals. At this stage, which begins at nine or ten years old, the child will lend greater importance to whether the drawing looks like the object being drawn.
