Ta'thīr al

Muslims worship the one and only God, who is childless, and also unbred, who created the heavens and the earth and what existed between the two in six periods, He knew what entered into the earth and what came out of it and what came down from it the sky and what rises to him. Different objects substances are worshiped. Isa is in Heaven now and will come back on the Judgement Day to judge every human being Qs.

What Does the Quran Say About Isa Al

You put it on the top shelf of the bookcase. ~ Dear Nazīhah, Jesus is alive after Allah raised Him from the dead.

Uṣūl al

~ Is it true that Jesus died on the cross? Because Isa knows the way to Heaven.

Ta'thīr al

We will be judged of our own deeds according to HIS Word. While Christians do not acknowledge this event since it is not in the Bible, it does point to Isa having divine power. Isa, the Kalimatullah, was sent by Allah to this world to become the ransom for saving people from the penalty of sins.

What Does the Quran Say About Isa Al

And He is with you wherever you are. The word of Allah cannot be separated from Allah. Third, Isa is said to be sinless.

Uṣūl al

In the Injil, we find even more amazing miracles.
