The Women's Liberation Movement — CWLU HERSTORY

I was drawn to writing about Marilyn because no one like me —an academic, a feminist biographer, and a historian of gender —had studied her. Oddly but not inaccurately, both the female and the male feel abandoned.

The Feminist Lie: It Was Never About Equality by Bob Lewis

A key task of feminist theology is reconciling belief in divinely ordained gender equality with Biblical passages that seem to portray women as of less value than men. Could this be the story of their relationship--NO is what I wanted to say.

How the Bicycle Paved the Way for Women's Rights

Those are not victim sentiments, those are warrior chants, wild woman anthems. When you meditate on Dada, the attributes of Dada will manifest within you.

ESSAY: LOVE AND LIBERATION: SONIA SANCHEZ'S LITERARY USES OF PERSONAL PAIN

What bothers me most is the lack of established relationships.
