Sermon > MOUNTING UP WITH WINGS LIKE EAGLES

The Eagle does more than fly amid the storm; he flies on top of the turbulent winds. Scolded by its owner, the donkey responded by talking back to the owner thereby saving Balaam from imminent death up ahead.

Isaiah 40:27

When a virus attacks his beak, the eagle will soar high to allow the air pressure to burst the build-up. Its old, aged and heavy wings, due to their thick feathers, stick to its chest and make it difficult to fly.

God in His grace will provide power, strength, and courage to the weary, weak, and downtrodden when they are willing to be patient and wait on Him. The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. The loss of a beak in the wild would be certain death to any bird of prey.

Mount Up With Wings As Eagles by Joyce Meyer

In some years nearly 100,000 eagles have been counted. We might be disappointed in ourselves or the way the church is going.

We might even be tempted to give up. Renewal of Strength The Eagle renews his feathers annually.

What does it mean to mount up with wings like eagles?

The talons are what an eagle uses to catch food. Yet those who wait for the LORD Will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary. The eagle excels more than any other bird.

Isaiah 40:31 But those who wait upon the LORD will renew their strength; they will mount up with wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not faint.

Even though the word of God is spirit filled, true and produces results, we sometimes forget that we as humans are first earthly vessels and thus sometimes, the flesh has to be in good condition before it can hold on to things of the spirit. Though a common farm animal, this one proves to be extraordinary with its ability to speak. Mounting up with wings like and eagle is not for the faint hearted.
