

Current achievements in geriatrics - papers read at a conference on medical and surgical aspects of ageing held in Glasgow, November 20th-22nd, 1963 under the auspices of the Glasgow Postgraduate Medical Board

Cassell - C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston

Description: -

-Current achievements in geriatrics - papers read at a conference on medical and surgical aspects of ageing held in Glasgow, November 20th-22nd, 1963 under the auspices of the Glasgow Postgraduate Medical Board

-Current achievements in geriatrics - papers read at a conference on medical and surgical aspects of ageing held in Glasgow, November 20th-22nd, 1963 under the auspices of the Glasgow Postgraduate Medical Board

Notes: Contains a session on psychiatry.

This edition was published in 1964

Filesize: 24.54 MB

Tags: #Telehealth #in #the #Developing #World

Current achievements in geriatrics; papers read at a Conference . . . held in Glasgow, November 20th

The UK Contribution to Health in Developing Countries. About 20% of the health workers mentioned their use of computers for professional activities. Engineering professionals, telecommunication companies and international development organizations all contributed to the EHAS project.

Current achievements in geriatrics: papers read at a Conference on Medical and Surgical Aspects of Ageing held in Glasgow, November 20th

An aspect of the ITU-D activities from a viewpoint of ehealth and human resource development.

eCite Browse by Year

Tele dermatology in developing countries Steven Kaddu, Carrie Kovarik, Gerald Gabler and H Peter Soyer 13. READ as many books as you like Personal use. International governmental and non-governmental financial support is also important.

Current achievements in geriatrics: papers read at a Conference on Medical and Surgical Aspects of Ageing held in Glasgow, November 20th

Participatory action research was employed in the design and implementation process of the TeleDoc and EHAS projects. Desmond Tutu Institute Jiva TeleDoc 1. In this context, health applications often appear in policy programmes mainly to justify the importance of broadband technologies.

Current achievements in geriatrics; papers read at a Conference . . . held in Glasgow, November 20th

Linking primary care information systems and public health information networks: lessons from the Philippines. Herman T, Marcelo A, Marcelo P, Maramba I. The project has been evaluated by two groups.

Librivox wiki

The current telemedicine services in the Philippines are simple enhancements to existing trust structures. Consumers International , regional Internet registries, private businesses e.

Related Books

- Pédagogie du Christ
- Report on concrete practice.
- Geograficheskie aspekty issledovaniia rekreatsionnykh sistem
- Large-scale studies of marked birds - proceedings of the EURING97 Conference
- Rāshṭrīya ekatā kā saṅkata āura sāmpradāyika śaktiyām