The groups of life become dissolved, There is no ego to be found. Kusala or wholesome kamma-formations, however, are such volitions, or cetana, as will bring happy and pleasant results, here and in the after-life. Tanhā happens automatically because of icca.

Fundamentals of Buddhism: Four Lectures

Did not the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche, already long years ago, understand and lay stress upon this absolute soberness and clearness of Buddhism when he said: Buddhism is a hundred times more realistic than Christianity.

The Essence of Buddhism: An Introduction to Its Philosophy and Practice by Traleg Kyabgon

For my part, I had and have a different aspiration.

The Essence of Tibetan Buddhism

The Karmapa is our Root Teacher, so my family and relatives did as he said and have no regrets — we helped at the monastery in Surmang and most of those who stayed died while fighting to protect Tibet.
