Talk -- talk about Social Security. And we need to think about young families.

Western Americana

INTO THE SUNSET: Reminiscent of Early Days in Northern Weld County. And today I want to talk about why we have an issue with Social Security, why I believe those of us who have been elected to office have an obligation to do something about it, and then I want -- and give some ideas, some constructive ideas to Congress as to how to deal with the issue, and then I want others to share with me their ideas. I do hope you enjoy the further reading.
