Historical analysis is necessarily employed because we must look at the past in order to best appreciate and analyze the present and where, if necessary, predict the future analysis of secondary data will be useful in this regard. I thought the invitation came because he knew me or that I was recommended to him by Colonel Okunola Okuromade, his classmate at Ijebu — Ode Grammar School through whom we met in 1965. Also, Nigeria has as well responded to the calls of distress by countries that are undergoing one natural disaster or the other.
