Communion and Stewardship: Human Persons Created in the Image of God

Why is that that's important for us? Singing is a part of worship, certainly, but I'm talking about taking our lives and walking them up on the altar and saying, here am I, all of me for all of you. Having answered its purpose as a place for the temporary dwelling of men, a school for training, its future is said to be of no interest to us.

Articles Of Faith Of Life Tabernacle

The redeemed will see in Jesus Christ their Saviour; the holy angels will see in Him the Image of God: to all men and angels, and other intelligent beings, if there be other, He will be the Way of approach to the Father. To the Church, indwelt by the regenerating Spirit of Christ, higher revelations of God can be made than to others on earth, because there is higher capacity to receive.

And I know you don't have any kids, but I'm gonna give you children like the sand of the seashore, like the stars of the sky. PART III: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES A. The distinction in the Godhead is a distinction within the oneness and of the oneness, not a distinction which qualifies oneness, or usurps the place of it, or destroys it.

Communion and Stewardship: Human Persons Created in the Image of God

In the New Testament the final culminating name is Jesus. The world and all that is in it, including man, was made by Him.
