Bill C

Recent official languages challenges stemming from the use of new technologies have appeared and, once again, required the Canadian Parliament to adapt its practices. The time-honoured test, derived from the law and custom of Parliament at Westminster, is what 'the dignity and efficiency of the House' require. By eliminating the need for further action by the governor in council or the minister who adopted the disallowed instrument, compliance with a disallowance decision would be improved by eliminating any possibility of a regulation making authority not complying with a disallowance order of the House.

Mark Brantley et al vs Curtis Martin et al

The office of the Speaker derives its authority from the House and the holder of the office may accurately be described as its representative and authoritative counsellor in all matters of form and procedure. As for the senators who are unhappy with the state of affairs, there has to be a way of solving that problem.

SBC 2007, c 39

The decision was appealed against, but sustained by a vote of 40 to 13. See Privilege Resolution 6 16. Once the committee has completed its work, it reports to the House and submits the bill to it with the amendments passed, if any.
