The discovery phase of a case helps prevent surprises during the trial and allows both sides to prepare equally. The vote fell 10 short of the necessary two-thirds of the chamber for a guilty verdict. When I use this strategy it is usually not a conscious decision.

Seven Strategies for Handling Difficult Questions

One great matter is, that the loch-fisher is depend- ent on nothing but enough wind to curl the water, -and on a large loch it is very seldom that a dead calm prevails all day, -and can make his arrangements for a day, weeks beforehand whereas the stream- fisher is dependent for a good take on the state of the water and however pleasant and easy it may be for one living near the banks of a good trout stream or river, it is quite another matter to arrange for a days river-fishing, if one is looking forward to a holiday at a date some weeks ahead. Sometimes a question is legitimately outside of your area of expertise.
