Kaiyō kokka Nihon no kōsō / Kōsaka Masataka

Article was originally translated from a roundtable discussion conducted in Japanese on June 19, 2015. Berkeley and Los Angeles: University of California Press. This way, even if Japan and China were squabbling at the national level, it would still be possible to go to Okinawa and see all sorts of people from the Asia-Pacific region mingling and getting along with each other.

{46} On the other hand, the interrogations conducted by the International Prosecution Section IPS have been edited by Awaya Kentaro and his colleagues and published by Nihon Tosho Senta. And I think we can say that Okinawa presents a key test of the ability of Japanese politics to deal with the problems we face.
