10 žingsnių, kaip išvirti idealius makaronus

On the grounds of these two principles, compromise and modernisation through liberalism, it would appear that Venizelos fares better as a statesman than Bratianu. It is here that he came in contact with the educational world of the time and with free Greece. That the defenders of Christianity had fired on the Greek flag and their co-religionists struggling to free themselves from the Turkish yoke shocked liberals throughout Europe and America.
