WYNELL BOWDIE, Secretary of the 15th Street Baptist Church, was interviewed and stated she has been so employed since January, 1960. She resides at Sumnerville 1470, Orangeburg, Alabama. She stated that starting in May, 1963, at which time the 15th Street Baptist Church was a meeting place for many integration activities, phone calls were received at the church threatening to bomb the church. Mrs. BOWDIE recalls specifically on one occasion in June, 1963, receiving a call from a person whom she stated gave the impression of being an older white man. She recalls the wording of this call as follows: "This is the ROC. Your church will be bombed tonight." She stated she asked what did he want, and the reply was, "Any four church will be bombed tonight." At 8 p.m. Mrs. BOWDIE reported that he returned from church, Father, and he told her subsequently that he had reported this to the Birmingham Police Department.

She said at different times there were calls and the general word of the calls was "Your church is about to be bombed." She stated that the other calls that she received were different from the one from the older man in that they were voices of younger people, possibly teenagers.

The Sunday before the bombing, September 8, 1963, a call was received by Assistant Secretary Mrs. MAUDE SHOOTEN and this call was also a threat to bomb the church.

Mrs. BOWDIE stated she was not present at the church on the morning of the bombing, and she has no information concerning the identity of anyone who might possibly be connected with the bombing.
