A completely revised, redesigned and updated edition of the definitive and bestselling woodworker's bible.

Collins Complete Woodworker's Manual by Albert Jackson

Every stage in crafting furniture and other decorative pieces are fully explained starting with the basics; the nature of wood, the tools required and setting up a workshop.

Collins complete woodworker's manual (1989 edition)

Very minimal wear and tear. Step-by-step illustrations demonstrate how to make every type of joint, and all the major crafts are given detailed coverage with the same step-by-step approach: bending wood, veneering and marquetry, woodcarving and finishing. Starting with the basics the nature of wood, the tools required, setting up a workshop the book then examines in depth the principles of three-dimensional design, from inspiration to methods of construction.
