Valuing Our Scans: Assessing the Value and Impact of Digitizing Ethnographic Collections for Access

From Polders to Postmodernism: a concise history of archival theory. For more than a century, the Oregon Historical Society has served as the state's collective memory, preserving a vast collection of artifacts, photographs, maps, manuscript materials, books, films, and oral histories. The earliest publication in this selection is from 1975, and the latest, 2007.
