Museo Antonio Ligabue

There was speculation as to the nature of Vivaldi's and Girò's relationship, but no evidence exists to indicate anything beyond friendship and professional collaboration. Vivaldi's father may have been a composer himself: in 1689, an opera titled La Fedeltà sfortunata was composed by a Giovanni Battista Rossi—the name under which Vivaldi's father had joined the Sovvegno di Santa Cecilia.

Vita di Antonio

His father, Giovanni Battista, who was a barber before becoming a professional violinist, taught Antonio to play the violin and then toured Venice playing the violin with his young son.

Vita di Antonio

Altri componimenti si devono al M^e Luigi Tronco, autore di numerose melodie e testi anche in vernacolo serrano. Not long after his ordination, in 1704, he was given a dispensation from celebrating most likely because of his ill health.
