Nationalised oil can deliver output growth

Briefly, the point at issue in the present dispute was the conflict between those provisions and the agreement with Aramco, which gave the latter the exclusive right to transport the oil which it had extracted from its concession area in Saudi Arabia.

Arbitration between Saudi Arabia and the Arabian American Oil Company (Aramco) (1958 edition)

Wrongfully terminating an agent may expose a company to liability and may make it more difficult to obtain government approval of a replacement agency agreement. Saudi law only allows citizens of Saudi Arabia or wholly-owned Saudi companies to operate as commercial agents. Article 12: The labor inspectors shall devote all their time and attention to the inspection duties assigned to them.

When the Concession Agreement was concluded in 1933, there was no ship flying the Saudi Arab flag. Iraqi president Ahmad Hassan al-Bakr resigns his position citing health reasons. The workmen supplied by the employment agent or labor contractor labor supplier shall, immediately upon their engagement by the employer, be regarded as employed by the latter and shall have all rights and privileges of the original workmen of the establishment.

kingdom of Saudi Arabia and Aramco arbitrate the Onassis agreement

If the ship is in port the seaman may be put to work on routine and cleaning jobs during his weekly rest days for a period not exceeding two hours. In order to invoke this Agreement against Aramco, the Minister of Finance and National Economy of the State was thus bound to rely on its purely contractual nature. Back to Iraq In the decade that followed the September 11 attacks, two events transformed the politics of the Middle East.
