More specifically, Quattrocchi and Nairn 1998 argue that 1968 was the year that shocked the world. She has published numerous articles on urban history and on cities, and writes regularly for the Revue Urbanisme.

Worker protests mount in France

The book is transnational history at its best - an account of the ideological, social, and political forces across European societies that shook traditional authority structures. Rhode 2006 ; Central Bank Cooperation at the BIS 2005 ; and Economic Growth in Europe since 1945 with N. Flacks 1970 distinguished two main features of these movements in order to justify their world-wide character.
