Local initiatives to help workless people find and keep paid work

The Program supports direct care; core public health functions such as resource development, capacity and systems building; population-based functions such as public information and education, knowledge development, outreach and program linkage; technical assistance to communities; and provider training. Accordingly, some districts have created alternative schools and schools-within-schools to make schools feel smaller.

Good and innovative practice in service delivery to vulnerable and disadvantaged families and children

National Center on Effective Secondary Schools, University of Wisconsin, Madison. The consensus of a wide range of evidence reviewed by Meadows 2006 and Greenberg et al 2005 is that for those who are close to the labour market — who have personal or work-related skills and only minor problems — the most effective form of support is help with job finding, presentation and interview skills.

Local initiatives to help workless people find and keep paid work

For example, the Teen Outreach program combines volunteer community service with after-school group counseling sessions to help young people confront the stress in their lives. Evaluation indicates that the project decreased rates of out-of-home placement and facilitated earlier return of adolescents to their home and school when placement did occur: since 1985, out-of-county juvenile justice and social services placements have been reduced by 46 percent in Ventura County U. CMCS is partnering with several federal agencies on the planning and coordination of the program support: the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development; SAMHSA; the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation; and the US Interagency Council on Homelessness.

Supporting disabled children, young people and their families: consultation

Therefore, this resource does not set out to be an exhaustive list of condition-specific information, nor a directory of local services; there will be a focus on clarifying national policy and entitlements.

Employment services for the disadvantaged : a report to the Personal Social Services Council on curr...

This indicates that organisations often needed to make an assessment about how to effectively balance service delivery options to address transport challenges, within the resources available. The only required employment service for TANF clients is a three-week Steps to Self-Sufficiency SSS class, which is taught at the one-stop by a TANF agency staff member. But they may have problems, which may be unrelated to their offending, for example accommodation or health problems, or they may be a member of a minority ethnic group Meadows 2006; DCLG 2006.
