World War II Poster Collection, 1941

The Second World War was not fought to stop fascism, or to liberate Europe. The large majority of investment was directed, financed, and, in most cases, owned by the federal government. The other scenario is that zombies were able to infiltrate their bunker complexes and infect all of them, resulting in over 20 million zombies bottled up underground, waiting to be let loose by the unwary.

Stephen King

The billions of people dead or infected would radically change the world system. But he has nothing to say about two critical questions that lie, so to speak, on each side of this interface: how the planning apparatus actually functioned, and how American industry was able to generate such big increases in output and productivity. In his opening chapter, on precursors to Second World War planning, Wilson quotes an amusing exchange
