Romanticism Against the Tide of Modernity by Michael Löwy

Stanfordville, : Human Rights Publishing Group, 1980.

May

We will be able to boast of a fantastic acquisition of knowledge, and will inevitably suffer a nervous collapse from which there will be no recovery. Why is it — do you say live out the sullen remainder of your days as a monk? La modernité après le post-moderne, Paris: Ed. Reading this novel is to wonder what Shirai Dôya would have thought in 1942.

Romanticism Against the Tide of Modernity by Michael Löwy

Robert Sharf, « The Zen of Japanese nationalism », History of Religions , Chicago, University of Chicago Press, vol. His current research interests include national formation in Meiji Japan; representations of France in Japanese intellectual, legal and political discourse; transnational discourse and postmodernism; and the representations of race, ethnicity and national identity.

State and Nation in 20th Century Japan: Toward an Interpretive Framework

The private residence has now become the center of the economy of tele-consumption and tele-production, but also the surveillance pod.
