Valuable primarily for its vast listing of movements and references to documents and secondary work. Even small towns were found to have a small UHI effect. Excellent on Charan Singh and the politics of zamindari abolition.

Key Concept 2.3: Networks of Communication and Exchange

Urban expansion in Western Sydney is creating a multitude of new estates on Sydney's fringes expected to house more than 100,000 residents. Details the exceptional heat event across Australia for October 2013. Synthetic grass warms up more than natural vegetation due to lack of evapotranspiration.
