Gandhian economics

Devaluation is no longer a real option for governments and policymakers as exchange rates are determined by markets. In India large-scale industries have been concentrated in a few big cities like Mumbai, Kolkata, Ahmedabad, Jamshedpur etc.

Gandhi and Sustainable Development

Extra production, resulting in the beginning of international economic race, would only lead to exploitation. The prevalent obsession and method of measuring development in terms of economic progress, industrialization, huge consumption of energy and natural resources and urbanization have been inadequate to address the miseries of the millions and also to ensure sustainable development.

Gandhi and Sustainable Development

The ruling class of Independent India neither had the conviction nor courage to walk on the path shown by Gandhi. The latter is always treated as a residual sector.

Toward a Gandhian Philosophy of Sustainable Development and Environmental Conservation

The 30 component companies represent all sectors of the economy.
