Task Force Report: 'Transforming the State Department'

As a captain in the Army, Fuhr was the first woman to command a forward-deployed, ground-based intelligence company on the inner German border. Dyer is also an experienced prosecutor and recognized expert on sexual assault and domestic violence.

U.S. Department of State

Church has led grassroots campaigns and initiatives advocating for ending military sexual trauma and supporting survivors.

Independent Review Commission on Sexual Assault in the Military

As a result of these efforts, State and USAID have placed greater attention on enhancing metrics to assess and publicly communicate the impact of atrocity prevention programming. This program would focus on new areas that require targeted expertise.

Independent Educational Evaluations (IEEs) Task Force

The task force did not see anybody doing that at the current point in time. There will be a much more open attitude toward the Congress, and I think the Congress will reciprocate.
