While completing her law degree, Celeste worked as part of a team of legal researchers for Lawyers without Borders, Student Division, where they wrote a research paper on freedom of expression and organized several debates. While completing her LLM, she volunteered at the Hamilton Community Legal Clinic where she worked with clients and completed applications on their behalf. Family Law Regulations 1984 reg 62 2 : - histories of family violence and the safety of the parties - the equality of bargaining power between the parties - the emotional and physical health of parties - the risk that a child might suffer abuse.
