Description: Counseling with confidence

There is provision for appeal to a person appointed by the Department under clause 25 in respect of an applicant: a who has been refused a felling licence or who has been aggrieved by the conditions attached to a felling licence; b upon whom a restocking notice has been served who objects to the notice or to any of its requirements; or c to whom an enforcement notice is given in relation to a felling licence or restocking notice who considers that the conditions of either the licence or the restocking notice have been complied with clause 23 — Notice to require compliance with felling licence conditions or restocking notice or that the steps required by the enforcement notice are not required for compliance with either the licence or the restocking notice. Building greater awareness of these actions will improve the ways archaeologists carry out their compliance responsibilities and respond to an often-misinformed public. The context for that is our long-term aim to double the area of forest cover.
