I believe in the resurrection of the body

We want to be like your Saints in heaven. O death, where is your sting? Will we look young, or old? And even worse, how many times have you used the 2 feet God has graciously given you to walk away from Word or Sacrament? I will still be me and you will still be you.

But it is plainly and evidently there.

First Presbyterian Church, Jackson, Mississippi

One day he crossed some line and he was too much in this world. But this is the meaning and substance of this addition: I believe that there is upon earth a little holy group and congregation of pure saints, under one head, even Christ, called together by the Holy Ghost in one faith, one mind, and understanding, with manifold gifts, yet agreeing in love, without sects or schisms. Our bodies and the lives we live therein are essential to who we are.

I Believe...In the Resurrection of the Flesh

Meanwhile, however, while sanctification has begun and is growing daily, we expect that our flesh will be destroyed and buried with all its uncleanness, and will come forth gloriously, and arise to entire and perfect holiness in a new eternal life. The acorn must be planted in the ground and it must die before the oak tree can appear.

I BELIEVE...IN THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY — Gottesdienst

Paul tells us that our bodies will be changed when the final trumpet sounds 1 Corinthians 15:51-52. I heard a man say that just as we have five senses today, we will have 500 in the resurrection. God did not make it just to destroy it later.

I Believe in the Resurrection of the Body — Pure in Heart America

We know that, when He appears, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him just as He is. Help us to stand strong and to abound in doing good because we know our work is not in vain. But the term Auferstehung des Fleisches resurrection of the flesh here employed is not according to good German idiom.

Gabriel Fackre, I Believe in the Resurrection of the Body

For as explained above we could never attain to the knowledge of the grace and favor of the Father except through the Lord Christ, who is a mirror of the paternal heart, outside of whom we see nothing but an angry and terrible Judge. And You shall renew the face of the earth.
