Lincoln The President Midstream (Hardcover) J.G. Randall

Lincoln's tact, shrewdness, and humor made him a skillful negotiator. It was a major cause of the conflict itself. But it is obvious that Randall believed Lincoln shared the blame.

Richard N. Current

In a detailed reevaluation of the evidence, Randall absolved Lincoln of a deliberate strategy to cause the South to fire the first shot at Fort Sumter. While working on his Lincoln biography, Randall delivered many lectures and wrote numerous articles that appeared in historical journals and in more popular sites such as the New York Times Magazine. But it was urged that volunteering had ceased, and any horse was better than a dead horse.

Lincoln The President Midstream (Hardcover) J.G. Randall

Lincoln hated slavery, insisted it be kept out of the territories, and thought compensated emancipation the fairest mode of abolition, with some subsequent colonization of freed slaves abroad. First published in four volumes in 1945, 1952, and 1955, J.

Richard N. Current

McClellan, leading to the former's reducing the latter's authority and then ousting him, Randall strongly implied criticism of the president. Potter, review of Lincoln the President: Vol. Events pushed Lincoln to more decisive actions.
