The Development of Class Struggle in Nigeria

Death and rebirth of partnerships -- 6. And 200 years before that, we would have seen slave ships in the Cawthorne Channel.

Structure and conflict in Nigeria, 1960

As male chiefs collaborated with the British colonial administration in collecting taxes and governing, the position of female chiefs declined in importance.

The Colonial and Pre

But if I may, you know, I had a response to the question about Yar'Adua, which, you know, I hold a slightly -- and I think we've disclosed this -- I had a slightly different position on Yar'Adua and how -- inaudible. The Belgians were helping Tshombé Congolese forces loyal to Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba, who was supported by the Soviet Union. There was complete consensus about that among all the leading parties.
