Fiscal Year 2019 Annual Performance Report

Target Met Performance Measure 6 focuses on strengthening and expanding the impact of the EEOC's education and outreach activities by expanding the use of technology.

Beyond Systemic Discrimination: Educational Rights, Skills Acquisition and the Case of the Roma, Review of Central and East European Law

Whenever a respondent submits a validity study purporting to justify a selection procedure with adverse impact, the Commission's own psychologists will evaluate the study for compliance with professional standards.

Educational Situation of Portuguese Ciganos: Social Changes versus Social Continuities

Include a description of the content of those courses directed toward the propagation of a religion. To fulfill this priority of providing robust compliance assistance to ensure equal opportunity, the Commission provided high-quality, easy to understand education and outreach in the private, public, and federal sectors, prioritizing outreach to the small business community.

Beyond systemic discrimination : educational rights, skills acquisition and the case of Roma

The EOS should identify all those accused of theft of company property, or poor attendance depending on charging party's allegations , or equally serious misconduct, and determine whether they were all discharged. In fiscal year 2016, the EEOC applied the criteria established under the QEP to a sample of investigations and conciliations to establish benchmarks for offices to use in fiscal year 2017.
